Kaohsiung HORECA puts the zest into Taiwan Tourism Bringing out the flair in lodging & dining!

Kaohsiung, Jan. 2, 2016: The welcome of Taiwan's 10 millionth international visitor in 2015 adds fresh pep to its MICE industry and adds impetus to the first-ever Kaohsiung HORECA.

Asian travelers are waking to the wonders of Taiwan hospitality and catering. Catering to the traveler's every need is an island buzzing with more than 64,000 restaurants and hotels. Now Taiwan travel officials say that 52 hotels (20,448 rooms) are either planned or under construction, with Kaohsiung slated to get 20 new hotels by 2017.

Bullish demand for Hotel, Food & Beverage Equipment

Kaohsiung HORECA spans several sectors. It's at HORECA where the market and maker meet with the latest hotel and restaurant equipment, baking machinery, tableware, dishwashers, accessories and supplies, central kitchens and laundries.

And because HORECA runs in sync with KAOHSIUNG FOOD it also offers scores of specials offers like all-you-can-buy south Taiwan hotel shopping & lodging packages. And most showcase products are manufactured at nearby factories which welcome visitors.
